Thirteen state and county organizations announce their endorsement of Sen. Roz Baker for State Senate

WAILUKU, Maui, Hawaii – July 8, 2014 – Thirteen labor, education, public safety and trade organizations have announced their endorsement of Senator Roz Baker for re-election to the Hawai`i State Senate, District 6 (South and West Maui).

Organizations endorsing Sen. Baker's candidacy are: Hawai`i State AFL-CIO; ILWU Local 142; Hawai`i Government Employees Association (HGEA); United Public Workers (UPW); Hawai`i Building and Construction Trades Council AFL-CIO; Hawai`i Carpenters Union; Hawai`i Laborers' Union Local 368; International Association of Bridge, Structural, Ornamental and Reinforcing Iron Workers, Local Union 625; Operating Engineers Local 3; the Hawai`i Teamsters and Allied Workers, Local 996; the Hawai`i Firefighters Association; the Hawai`i State Teachers Association (HSTA); and the REALTOR(S) Hawai`i Political Action Committee.

"Sen. Baker is committed to improving the benefits and protections for Hawaii's working people and their families, to grow our economy, to improve our communities and to protect the rights of all the people of our State," said Donna Domingo president of ILWU Local 142.

"We support Roz Baker as she believes that all workers deserve a healthy and safe workplace and that hard-won benefits are protected," said Randy Perreira, president of Hawai`i State AFL-CIO.

"Roz Baker is a strong voice for teachers, students and public education," wrote Wil Okabe, president of HSTA.

"Sen. Baker has been a tremendous advocate for first responders on public safety issues. Her dedication and commitment to public service on behalf of her community and the State is greatly appreciated," said Jeff Kihune, chair, Hawai`i Firefighters Association, Maui Division.

"Maui Realtors support Roz Baker because she has repeatedly supported us in the State Legislature", said Kihei Realtor and Maui Member of the Hawaii Political Action Committee Michael Trotto.
